

Caring together

Get inspired by Tai Mooi Ho, our Project Coordinator – Become a Volunteer today!

We asked Tai Mooi Ho, our Project Coordinator, who has been a Member of EDTNA/ERCA for 19 years about the benefit it brings to everyone involved of being a Volunteer.

‘What would you like to say to other Members who consider to become an EDTNA/ERCA Volunteer?’

“By being a volunteer, you will gain from what you give. It is a good opportunity to become involved in renal care together with peers from other countries.”

Volunteering is generally considered as an unselfish activity and is intended to promote goodness and improve human quality of life. And this is true and at the same time, in return, your volunteering will generate a feeling of self-worth and respect.

To perform volunteering at EDTNA/ERCA is also well known for professional skill development, to meet new friends and colleagues and also allow yourself to have some fun. Volunteering for us at the Association have positive benefits for you as a Volunteer as well as for the persons or communities served and involved in your activities. ‘So Tai Mooi, why did you decide to become a Member of EDTNA/ERCA?’

“For continuing education.”

‘Why did you decide to become a Volunteer?’

“I decided to be a volunteer because it gives me the chance to take on new responsibilities, gaining knowledge and experience working with peers at an international level. This is an excellent way for personal and professional development. Additionally, I wanted to keep in touch with English!”

‘What was your first assignment as a Volunteer?’

“I was part of the CKD Interest Group.”

‘What would you like to say to other Members who consider to become an EDTNA/ERCA Volunteer?’

“By being a volunteer, you will gain from what you give. It is a good opportunity to become involved in renal care together with peers from other countries.”

‘What is your best memory or impression you have about EDTNA/ERCA?’

“Being part of EDTNA/ERCA, I've learnt from working with colleagues who are experts in their areas of renal care and made new friends from other countries.”

‘Anything you would like to add?’

“Volunteerism may mean hard work at times but it also compensates with certain satisfaction. I'm glad I decided to become a volunteer. ”
